Dallas - Fort Worth Life Science Directory

The Dallas Regional Chamber mission:

The Dallas Regional Chamber is the area's leading membership-driven business organization committed to promoting economic prosperity by leading economic development, driving improvements in public education, influencing public policy, and catalyzing and advocating for regional partnerships. The Chamber works to ensure that the Dallas region will become the most economically prosperous region - and the most desirable place to live and work - in the United States. The Chamber is a not for profit organization comprised of businesses which represent all facets of the North Texas business community.

This directory is comprised of medical facilities and companies that are researching, developing and manufacturing in the region's Life Science industry. Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the data. However, due to the nature of the information and various sources used to compile the dataset, the Dallas Regional Chamber makes no warranties or guarantees nor assumes any liability for error or omissions. Corrections or additions to the directory can be made by contacting research@dallaschamber.org

Technology Business Council's Life Science Council

The Life Science Council provides direction to the Dallas Regional Chamber's Technology Business Council by bringing together dedicated executives, universities and other regional organizations that play an active role in the regional industries. The Life Science Council assists in economic development missions and conferences domestically and abroad, promotes public policy positions that impact the life science arena and provides member services to educate the North Texas region on cutting-edge industry topics.
