

Mike Katcher

Former Chief HR Officer
Golden Living

“We were thrilled when our entire executive team elected to relocate to Plano. I’m confident that was because our leaders liked the outstanding neighborhoods and amenities they found here. Plano offers something for each individual and family that creates a sense of home. Plano, and the surrounding area, provided our company with an attractive place for our employees to live and work. It is the right place for us to centralize our management team and support our business across the country.”